GENEVA GREATLY EXCITED

Over Spiritualistic Manifestations That Have to Do With Man Long Dead.

Picture Appearing Upon Canvas Recognized by Man Who Saw Victim Killed.

The people of Geneva and that community are considerably "up in the air" just at present over a most astonishing accomplishment in Spiritualism.

Charles Reicheldeifer, a pioneer of that place, was killed in 1858, when a tree fell on him when he and Alexander Bolds were at work in a woods near there. His son, Charles Reicheldeifer, never saw him, and though he has tried for years, has never been able to secure a picture of him.

On August 13th last, Charles and his friend, A. P. Hardison, made a trip to the Chesterfield Spiritualistic camp near Anderson. At 5 o'clock that afternoon they attended a seance held in a business room there. Mr. Reicheldeifer was asked if he would like to talk to any one, and told the medium he would appreciate a conversation with his father. He made the request in writing, placed it in a slate and was soon answered by message that his father would talk to him. Soon a voice asked him what he wanted and he said he would like a picture of his parent whom he had never seen. The father agreed to set for the picture. A canvass was placed upon the window and the two Geneva men faced it and watched for developments, which came. Soon an ear appeared, then the eyes, and in a few minutes a clear, life-sized photograph of a man dressed in the style of fifty years ago came upon the canvass.

Of course, Charlie could not tell whether it was a photograph of his father or not, but consented to have it finished and framed and sent to him. Ten days later it arrived and was placed on exhibition in Sam Acker's window at Geneva. It is one of the finest works of art ever seen there and has attracted much attention.

A day or two ago, Alex Bolds, who, as stated, was with Mr. Reicheldeifer when he was killed, was brought to the store, without being told what was wanted or that a picture had been obtained. As soon as he saw the picture he recognized it as that of his old friend.

The affair has all of the people of that place guessing, and many have made trips to Chesterfield camp since.

Wanted—Man past thirty, with horse and buggy, to sell stock condition powder in Mercer County. Salary, $70 per month. Address 301, Unity Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

93 Woodland Avenue, Columbus, O.
I take delight in letting every one know that I have this day been examined by a physician, and he informs me that my lungs are now normal. I was surely in bad condition when I got my first bottle of Nature's Creation, which was January 18th last. No one could possibly expect to improve any more rapidly than I have, and I hope that others will be cured as speedily.
Very truly,
Eva Miller

(From Free-Press, May 4, 1908.)
The cost of this wonderful treatment is within the reach of all. It averages less than one-half of what it costs to doctor with any physician (not taking into consideration the fact that no doctor who is honest will make any pretensions at even helping a sufferer). Send for full particulars, including valuable booklet, which we send postpaid, to Dr. J. C. Miller, 93 Woodland Avenue, Columbus, O.

NINE-FOOT STAGE BOOMS BUSINESS
Packet Companies Add Boats to Ohio River Lines.

Cincinnati, O. (Special).—Although the greater portion of the improvements in the Ohio river authorized by congress for the creation of a nine-foot stage of water the year round has not yet been begun, the anticipated benefits of this tremendous undertaking, calling for an outlay of approximately $60,000,000, are already being taken advantage of. The Louisville and Cincinnati Packet Company, which operates a line of boats between Cincinnati and Louisville, and also has subsidiary lines, has added to the scope of its operations by purchasing two additional boats, which will be placed in service between Louisville and Evansville, thereby giving continuous daily service under one management from Cincinnati and way points to Evansville. The officials of the company are free in saying that this amplification of their operations is due directly to the anticipated revival and the greatly increased volume of river traffic which is certain to result from the improvements now being made and authorized.

Another earnest of this anticipated boom in river traffic is found in the diligence which various Ohio river communities are showing in the Ohio Valley Exposition, which will be held in Cincinnati from August 29 to September 24, and which is designed principally to exploit the industries and products of the Ohio Valley and the South. Portsmouth, O., for instance, has secured 2,000 square feet of exhibition space at the Exposition for the display of her industries.

Speaking of the benefits of a perpetual navigable stage of the Ohio, Hon. Albert Bettinger, vice president of the Ohio River Improvement Association, said: "With uninterrupted navigation the year round, the Ohio Valley, from Pittsburgh to Cairo, eventually will resolve itself into one continuous line of factories. When these improvements are completed and the Panama canal opened, the manufacturers of the Ohio Valley will be able to compete with foreign nations for the business of any section of the world."
